

TUSCAN SPLENDOR

If you are fortunate enough to be the high bidder on this auction item you will have the time of your life during a week's stay in a luxurious villa that sleeps 10 in Casole d'Elsa, nearby Siena in fabulous Tuscany, Italy. You will be enchanted by this locale, known for its mesmerizing landscape of sweet green hills covered by olive trees, vineyards yielding fine wines and extraordinary cuisine.

FAB IN THE SOUTH OF FRANCE

Through the generosity of AOC Fine Wines in Old Greenwich, our auction features a trip to the fabulous Chateau La Villatade. At this storied Chateau the vineyards are stunningly beautiful offering a view of soft slopes, grape vines, olive groves, and plains leading to the foothills of the Pyrenees. The Chateau is located just 15 kilometers north of Carcassonne and its medieval walled fortress, and lies only 40 kilometers from Mediterranean beaches. If you are looking for calm and authentic lodgings in a Languedoc, France residence, this Chateau will not disappoint. The Chateau features a restored 26 meter natural pond and the surroundings offer a plethora of activities nearby, including mountain bicycling, golfing, tennis, gastronomy tours, hiking, horseback riding, a trout pond, and a national hiking path.

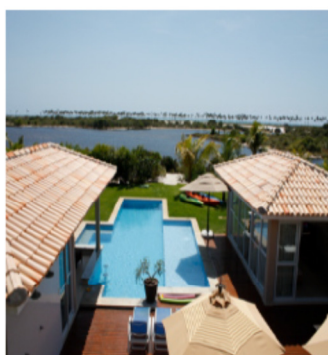

AOC FINE WINES.com
The world at your lips

BEAUTIFUL BAHIA

Set in the Costa do Suaipe, a jewel among the beaches of Bahia, Brazil, in an ecological preserve, this luxurious residence is in a spectacular private enclave surrounded by dunes, palm trees and perennial sunshine. The residence sleeps ten with five bedrooms and five baths with magnificent views of the Grande Laguna for seven nights. The pristine sands of the Costa do Sauipe are your gateway to soothing ocean breezes and attentive service. Amenities include central air conditioning, two tennis courts, a squash court, a game room, restaurants, barbecue grill, full kitchen, full laundry facilities, a spacious deck with private pool, garage and electric boat to bring you to the beach.

Spider-Man Turn Off the Dark Four Tickets

Something to Marvel At! A theatre enthusiasts dream, four house seat tickets to Spider-Man Turn Off the Dark. One of the most technically elaborate Broadway musicals of all time, Spider-Man brings the Manhattan skyline to life on stage and features incredible aerial stunts as Spider-Man flies over the audience to fight his foes. The musical features a rock score penned by famed U2 musicians Bono and the Edge. Similar to other projects from the show's original director, Julie Taymor, there are inventive costumes, puppets, masks, projections and more stunning visual techniques used throughout the show. (Tickets exclude holidays and weekends).

Sunset Cruise and Dinner for Four at Indian Harbor Yacht Club

Leave Indian Harbor Yacht Club and delight in a sunset sail for four on Long Island Sound with Captain Jake Cramer, while enjoying selected wines. After two hours of relaxation on your captained Pearson 34, return to the Club for a wonderful waterside dinner at their excellent restaurant. (Mutually agreed upon date.)

Romance, Relaxation and More at Vermont's Woodstock Inn and Resort

Enjoy two nights, double occupancy at this award winning, Preferred Hotel. You will find plenty to do both indoors and out. The historic town is filled with excellent, unique shops. For those looking to unwind, the spa features nourishing treatments and organic products that will leave you feeling refreshed and rejuvenated. Included is Vermont state room tax, department service charge, breakfast for two daily (excludes gratuity), dinner for two daily (excludes gratuity and alcohol), a bottle of champagne delivered to your room with a token from the gift shop and use of the Resort's indoor racquet and fitness club, pool, sauna, steam room, whirlpool and exercise room. Reservations must be made in advance. Excludes July - October weekends, foliage and holiday periods.