Spirit of Greenwich Award

2012 SPIRIT OF GREENWICH NOMINATION FORM

Deadline for Nominations: Monday, March 19, 2012

The Spirit of Greenwich Award was established in 1994 to honor outstanding women volunteers. To be eligible for a Spirit of Greenwich Award, nominees must have made extraordinary contributions to the quality of life in Greenwich by recognizing the needs of the community and addressing them through volunteer community service.

Nominees will be evaluated based on the information submitted on their behalf. Therefore, nominators are urged to fill in as much data on their nominees as possible, including a resume, a description of past projects and community service activities. Experience has shown that the strongest nominations include at least two letters of recommendation from different sponsoring organizations and demonstrable examples of a person's impact on the community. Please include no more than three letters of support.
